Former Resident Of Moss Point Dies In N. O. Hospital

Eugene Borden Barnett, formerly of Moss Point, died at the Baptist hospital in New Orleans, Monday, where he had been taken for an operation. He was 42 years old.

Born in Moss Point, Mr. Barnett was the son of Mrs. C. W. Barnett and the late Mr. Barnett. He moved away several years ago and at the time of his death was making his home in St. Andrew, Fla., and was superintendent of the city water works of Panama City. He was educated at the Moss Point High school and later attended Mississippi State College where he was an outstanding football star.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Marion Gaenir Barnett; one son, Jimmy; his mother, and two brothers, C. B. of Jackson and B. T. Barnett of Biloxi. An aunt, Mrs. M. M. Watkins, is a resident of Handsboro.

Among those attending funeral services held Tuesday, were his brother from Jackson; Mrs. B. T. Barnett, his sister-in-law; and his cousins, Harold Watkins of Hattiesburg, and Clarence Watkins of Mobile. Feb 18, 1944
